

CLOSING CEREMONY

(A CULMINATION OF SXMUN SUMMIT)

SXMUN 4th edition finally concluded cherishing the power packed information that every delegate received in each committee.

The ceremony was marked momentous by a melodious musical performance titled 'Memories' by the President of Secretariat Board, Gaurvi that vibrated soothingly through the ears.

The Principal Rev. Father Cidloy Furtado addressed the gathering applauding the hard efforts put by the Xaverian team. He praised the assembly of young intellectuals and advised them to be committed to be changers of tomorrow. He added that the delegates would emerge with deeper understanding of International Politics. But at the same time, he guided the youth not to have any expectation of self complacency and avoid indulging in Plagiarism. Rev. Father further guided the students not to reduce MUN to mere Social Networking Sites rather they should take it in the right stride to resolve international issues.

Rev. Father also acknowledged and appreciated the able leadership quality of Mrs. Poonam Baghla under whose supervision the 4th Edition of SXMUN 2020 was conducted successfully.

The SXMUN Summit concluded by awarding the respective delegates of each committee for their exemplary views and arguments. Delegate of Republic of Korea(UNGA) Delegate of Austria(ECOSOC) Delegate of UAE(WHO), Delegate of Iran(UNHRC) and Dushyant Chautala of AIPPM won the Outstanding Delegate award.

Awards were conferred for High Commendation, Honourable Mention, Best Position Paper and Verbal Mention for each committee.

The best school Delegation award was bagged by Fr. Agnel School, Noida.

A vote of thanks was proposed by the Secretary General Sneha who expressed her gratitude to the Manager Rev. Father Christopher Michael, the Principal Rev. Father Cidloy Furtado , the Secretariat and teachers for their tireless hard work and the event was declared closed.
