Dear Parents,
Greetings!

Hindi is the soul of Indian culture.

When we spoke the first word as a baby - it was 'Maa!' .The word means mother in Hindi, but the association doesn't end there – the word also represents our feeling for our national language. Hindi is a way to express grief, love, joy and in all to communicate our feelings. Hindi Diwas is celebrated every year on 14th September to pay tribute to the official language of India. It was adopted as the official language of Constituent assembly on September 14, 1949.
