

In the words of W B Yeats -

'Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire'.

To ignite such fire of learning in the students of class 5, an "Extempore Competition" was organised on 25th of January through zoom platform.

The main objective of this contest was to improve the oral expressions of thought, develop confidence in public speaking, think quickly, build leadership qualities and enhance communication skills of our students.

It brought together some of the the bright learners of class 5. Two children from each section were selected, after the screening round by the English teachers.

The event began with the introduction of the participants. Thereafter, a question was posed by the judges and the participants were asked to speak on the given topic, in an allocated time span of 2 minutes. There were a total of 10 participants and three of them won the competition.

First - Aarav Jain (5 A)

Second - Toshiana (5A)

Third - Aarav Grover (5E)

The competition was conducted by Ms. Ramandeep and Ms Divya, under the kind mentorship of Miss Sonia Jindal. It was an event full of fun and learning.
