Celebrating education for the last 40 years and enjoying the status of being the renowned one in the region, St. Xavier's School, Bathinda organised 'Hide & Seek'- Annual Day Celebrations for the junior wing in its senior wing.

The occasion was graced by Dr. Baljit Kaur, Cabinet Minister, Punjab with her presence as a chief guest. However, Rev Fr Remy Cardozo, sfx, Provincial Superior & Chairman, Society of Pilar, Punjab Haryana was the guest of honour on the event. Fr Christopher Michael, Manager, St. Xavier's School, Bathinda and Fr Cidloy Furtado, Principal, St. Xavier's School, Bathinda felicitated the chief guest and the guest of honour.

The programme comprised of various performances such as dance, singing, theatre, martial arts to exhibit the talent of its little champions. The event was one of its kind which was worth witnessing with the best of lighting and sound along with young talent of the school.

On addressing the gathering, Dr. Baljit Kaur expressed her appeasement towards the performances while also congratulating the principal and staff for putting up such a magnificent show. She also stated that if Punjab has schools like St. Xavier's School, Bathinda, the children of Punjab will not have the need to go abroad, as it boosts their confidence and shapes their personality to prepare them for life.

Fr Remy Cardozo also addressed the gathering and congratulated the school for a successful event. He also expressed his pleasure towards the school's all round contribution towards society. 'Be it in academics, sports, social service or charity, the school leads the region in every aspect', he stated.

Fr. Christopher Michael, Manager expressed gratitude to the chief guest and guest of honour for gracing the occasion with their presence. He also appreciated the efforts of the teachers, students and the helping staff in order to make the event a successful one.

The event was concluded with the national anthem.
