A Visit to Old Age Home

The spirit of giving and connection echoed through the halls of the Old Age Home as Xavierites went above and beyond.

Students not only shared festive joy but also engaged in meaningful conversations, bridging generational gap and fostering a sense of community. The teaching staff's scintillating performances illuminated the atmosphere, creating an unforgettable Diwali experience for everyone involved. This event truly exemplified the power of compassion and human connection.

The exchange of gifts became a poignant expression of care and consideration.
